Matches Washed Out at the Gwinnett Sports Commission Women's 50K Tennis Classic

(Saturday's schedule attached)

LAWRENCEVILLE, GEORGIA, October 17, 2008 – Friday's action at the Gwinnett Sports Commission Women's 50K Tennis Classic was postponed due to rain. Saturday's matches will begin at 10:00 AM at Collins Hill Athletic Club with main draw singles quarterfinal/semifinal matches and main draw doubles semifinal matches.

Marietta resident, Melanie Oudin takes the court at 10:00 AM as she takes on fellow American Ahsha Rolle. Another match taking place at 10:00 AM is a rematch of last years final as Julie Ditty plays Angela Haynes.

Over 60 professional women tennis players converged on Collins Hill Athletic Club, October 12-19 for the 3rd Annual Women's 50K Classic, a United States Tennis Association (USTA) Women's Pro Circuit event. Presented by the Gwinnett Sports Commission, this eight-day event featured 32 women competing in the qualifying event with the top four players moving on to compete in the main draw of 32.

Participants are competing for part of the $50,000 prize purse, and at the same time a local charity will benefit from the week long activities, the Gwinnett Tennis Foundation. The newly formed Gwinnett Tennis Foundation is a gateway for junior tennis players to compete and train for tennis at any level. Their mission is to provide opportunities in tennis for Gwinnett's top-ranked players, disabled and physically challenged juniors.

Family fun and community activities are front and center all week. Activities will include a pro-am tournament, ladies clinics, kids clinics, media challenge, players party, raffles, prizes and featuring a "Community Tennis Festival Day" on Saturday, October 18th. These eight days of professional tennis are FREE to spectators.
